

Conquer the Quest

Two new Quests (treasure hunts) about Victorian Hingham by the 375th Hingham Anniversary Committee. For family involvement! Booklets will be available ($5) after March 1 at Noble's Camera Shop, 29 Main St., Hingham. Return completed booklet for reward and monthly drawing. What was Hingham like 200 years ago?

How were citizens earning a living, moving from one part of town to another, spending their free time, spending their money? The Quest challenge will give a taste of life in Hingham during the 19th century. Go to <http://www.hingham-ma.com/375th> for 375th Anniversary updates.

Melville Garden – Hingham's Victorian Amusement Park

A slideshow presentation on Hingham's fashionable Victorian Amusement park, Sun., April 18, Hingham Library, 3 pm. Old photos, posters, and postcards tell the story of why over 70,000 people visited this elegant "garden" on Crow Point one summer alone! Hear the stories, see why they came, see what's left today of this Hingham "destination." $3.00 for those over 12.

Civil War Week: Immerse yourself in the Civil War years

- Mon. June 21, free movie, Red Badge of Courage, Hingham Public Library, 7 pm (not rated)
- Wed., June 23, free movie, Glory, Hingham Public Library, 7 pm R
- Sat., June 26, Civil War Encampment: tents, soldiers, cavalry unit, memorabilia and historic weapons display, and more. Old Ship Church lawn and Hingham Cemetery; 10 am – 1 pm. Gun salutes 12:45 pm. Rain date, June 27, 10 am – 1 pm. Free